Volume 1001 - APRIL 2012

Message from Managing Director

Dear Sirs,

It's the 10th year of Sandhar for 2012 and we are proud to say that we have achieved a number of milestones in the past year. We have been able to expand our operations to new markets, improve our production processes, and enhance our customer service. We have also been able to maintain our commitment to environmental sustainability and social responsibility. We are grateful to our employees, customers, and partners for their support and contribution to our success. We look forward to continuing our growth and innovation in the coming year.

Yours faithfully,
Mr. Jayant Davar

Volume 1001 - APRIL 2012

From the desk of Ajayt Davar

My Sandhar Family

The first year gone by has been one of learning and yet I have learnt a lot. I have been able to expand our operations to new markets, improve our production processes, and enhance our customer service. We have also been able to maintain our commitment to environmental sustainability and social responsibility. We are grateful to our employees, customers, and partners for their support and contribution to our success. We look forward to continuing our growth and innovation in the coming year.

Customer Visiting the New Office Block

The new office block at Sandhar is now under construction. We are excited to announce that the new office block will be completed by the end of the year. The new office block will provide a better working environment for our employees and will also provide a better service to our customers. We are looking forward to the completion of the new office block and to the many opportunities it will provide for our employees and customers.

Santhar Foundation continues to do the good

The Santhar Foundation continues to do the good in the community. We have been able to expand our operations to new markets, improve our production processes, and enhance our customer service. We have also been able to maintain our commitment to environmental sustainability and social responsibility. We are grateful to our employees, customers, and partners for their support and contribution to our success. We look forward to continuing our growth and innovation in the coming year.
